

XM radio is a wonderful technology that I believe should not be governed in any way by the FCC. Obviously, the radio frequencies that XM uses need to be licensed by the FCC, but content absolutely should not. We pay for this service and benefit for its content, including the Instant Traffic and Weather Reports. Please do not regulate XM! All technologies are hurt when they are regulated. XM is a great service, and I hope it stays that way.